

Match the items listed below with the description provided

	Description	Item
1.	Technical drawings that showcase all aspects of the project design.	Drill
2.	A unique tool that protects an individual from the possibility of touching live parts of a circuit.	Excavating Bucket
3.	A mixture of sand and cement that when water is added, creates a hardening paste.	Insulated Screwdriver
4.	Used to smooth, level, or create texture on the top layer of hardening concrete.	Pipe Wrench
5.	A unique tool that is narrow at one end allowing an individual to align bolt holes in the beam they are installing.	Blueprints
6.	Designed for clearing the most extreme environments and provides additional force when digging.	Snips
7.	An instrument that measures the amount of voltage in an electrical circuit.	End-Cutting Pliers

Match the items listed below with the description provided

	Description	Item
8.	Typically use two of these together to tighten and loosen fittings on pipework.	Voltmeter
9.	Used to cut through tough objects such as metal strapping.	Liquid Penetrant Testing Dye
10.	These handheld tools are designed to cut sheet metal.	Acetylene Torch
11.	A handheld power tool used to quickly insert screws into drywall, wood, studs, and other materials.	Suction Cup
12.	This colourful liquid is used to detect cracks on multiple surface types	Mortar
13.	An affordable and versatile tool that uses extreme heat to weld or solder metal.	Cement Finishing Trowel
14.	They make it safe to help lift large, heavy pieces of glass.	Spud Wrench